

Health Literacy

online training

101

Health Literacy is everyone's responsibility

Health Literacy specialists, 'enliven' will run health literacy online training to help you build understanding and appreciation of health literacy.

Who Should Attend:

- Anyone involved in communicating health messages
- Those creating health materials for patients and families and consumers
- Leaders who want to build team communication skills
- Anyone who would like to better understand the application of health literacy

Topics:

- Understanding health literacy: individuals and environments
- Creating accessible material
- Effective interpersonal communication

When: Wednesday 8 December 2021

Time: 9am to 12.30pm (online)

Register your interest by 22 November on lattie as numbers are limited.
Once registered a link for the sessions will be sent to you.

Your enliven facilitators:

Emily Harris: has a masters of Public Health from the University of Melbourne. Emily previously worked at South Eastern Melbourne Primary Health Network where her focus was on developing resources with the community to navigate primary care.

Natalie Ward: has tertiary qualifications in science and psychology and is currently completing a Master of Public Health and Doctor of Medicine. Natalie previously worked for the World Health Organisation in Gender, Equity and Human Rights Program with a focus on understanding the complex relationship between gender and health.